

Resource Advisor

What could be better than finding the support you need – without worrying about how much it costs?

In today's fast-paced world, you no doubt feel some stress at home and at work. Greater Georgia Life Resource Advisor is designed to improve your well-being by helping you manage problems before they become an emotional or financial burden.

Need help?

Should you need it, Resource Advisor provides up to three consultations with a legal and/or financial professional at no cost.

You and your family members also get free and confidential access to work/life resources:

- community resources, like weather, events and neighborhood information
- child and elder care provider databases
- consumer education and services on important topics like fire safety
- parenting information and services
- tips on dealing with emotions and advice on handling difficult life events, like losing loved ones
- online financial calculators and tools
- self-assessments
- assistance preparing an online will, living will and financial power of attorney, as well as an online legal library
- information on dealing with identity theft

Staying connected

We're here when you need us. The telephone consultation and referral services are available 24/7, toll-free from anywhere in the United States. And of course the Resource Advisor web site never closes, so helpful resources are just a click away!

Face-to-face support services in a time of need

Resource Advisor gives employees with disability coverage three face-to-face sessions with a licensed mental health professional during the six month period after the onset of disability.

If you have life insurance and pass away, your beneficiaries get three visits with a licensed mental health professional, as well as up to three consultations with a legal and/or financial professional. Beneficiaries can visit these specialists up to six months after their loss.
